About the Partnership

The Arkansas Pro Bono Partnership is a collaborative effort to improve and expand the reach of pro bono activities in the state. Sanctioned by the Arkansas Bar Association, the Partnership is charged with coordinating the recruitment, responsibilities, and recognition of volunteer attorneys. Part of the Partnership efforts is an extensive website designed in part to aid pro bono volunteers with Fact Sheets, Forms and technologically sophisticated techniques to facilitate case management.

The Partnership currently works with volunteers through four operating units. Once registered, one of these organizations will work directly with you from case selection to case conclusion based on the counties and legal interests you identified. These Partnership Panels are:

- AVLE - Arkansas Volunteer Lawyers for the Elderly
- Equal Access to Justice Panel
- River Valley Volunteer Attorneys
- VOCALS - Volunteers Organization, Center for Arkansas Legal Services

The Partnership also works closely with the Arkansas Access to Justice Commission created by the Arkansas Supreme Court in its efforts to expand and enhance the pro bono efforts of the state's attorneys.
