Jessica Lee is Chief Counsel in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Little Rock Field Office. She joined HUD as a Legal Honors participant in August 2009. Mrs. Lee's work includes Multifamily and Section 232 closings and related asset management assistance, Single Family defensive litigation, RAD closings and Public Housing-related legal work, and other legal advice as needed both for the Little Rock office and other offices around the agency. She received her Juris Doctor from Southern Methodist University - Dedman School of Law, where she served as the Managing Editor for The International Lawyer. Mrs. Lee is admitted to practice in Arkansas and Texas.

Session: Housing Case Law and Statutory Update

This session will provide a brief overview of HUD's mainstream voucher program, the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program, and Smoke Free Public Housing. The presenter will also provide a refresher on notice and termination requirements in several of the largest HUD assisted housing programs (Public Housing, Housing Choice Vouchers, and project-based assistance).
