Before establishing LDHR with her partners in 2016, Lauren was a partner at the law firm of Hilburn, Calhoun, Harper, Pruniski, & Calhoun, Ltd. in North Little Rock. Lauren's practice consists of a wide variety of domestic relations litigation including divorce, visitation, paternity, child support, child custody, and relocation. She also focuses her practice on probate matters including guardianships, adoptions, and estate and trust litigation.

Lauren is a native daughter of North Little Rock, is a graduate of Mount St. Mary Academy in Little Rock and holds a B.A. in Political Science from Louisiana State University. After graduating from the U.A.L.R. Bowen School of Law and being admitted to the bar in 2006, Lauren served as the law clerk in Pulaski County Circuit Court and served as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the Sixth Judicial District. She is a member of the Arkansas Bar Association and Pulaski County Bar Association. She currently serves as Secretary on the Board of Directors for the Pulaski County Bar Foundation and is a graduate of the 2012 Arkansas Bar Association Leadership Academy. She and her husband, Joel, reside in North Little Rock with their blended family of five children.
